PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

December marks the end of a year and January ushers in the New Year.

Briefly we look back over 1975 to see how we met our objectives and then look ahead to 1976.

First we sadly note the passing of dear friends of NASC in 1975. Their years of service are irreplaceable. Their friendships are sorely missed.

Their knowledge will stay with us forever.

On the plus side, we hosted our first ANA Convention. We held our Fifth Annual Workshop. Both were record events in terms of attendance and participation. Our 1975 convention was a success. So was our Dealer-Collector Forum.

Now for 1976. It's our 21st birthday. It's our nation's Bicentennial.

Our 1976 convention should be a record one. Our 1976 events should all be outstanding. Our awards for exhibits will be bicentennial-theme medals.

Nasc will have a banner year in '76. Hope you participate in every facet of NASC this year. Start out by coming all four days at our 1976 convention February 19-22.

A GIANT HAS FALLEN

11-29-75

It was with deep personal sorrow that I learned today of th death of Maurice M. Gould. There are many "famous" names i numismatics but among those who have contributed steadily an persistently to the advancement of numismatic education there is on name that stands out . . . Maurice M. Gould. His name has come to b associated with the numismatic forum here in Southern California t the point that a forum just wouldn't seem "right" without Mau Gould as moderator. They won't seem right — he will be misse Goodbye Maury.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR:

November 13, 1975

Today I received my issue of the 1975 Fall Quarterly, and on reading it, noted I was listed as deceased on Page 15!

Please be advised that though, at times, I have been close to it, as of today, I have no intention of leaving this mortal coil, and as Mark Twain said — "The news of my death is greatly exaggerated."

Perhaps it would be well to make some correction of this, as I don't want my many friends to be sending my family regrets, yet!

Very truly yours,

Ben W. Williams, Past-President 1960-61

(Editor's note—one of the problems with being a relative newcomer to an organization such as this is the inability to catch all of the errors such as the incorrect asterisk in the list of Past Presidents. We are pleased to make the correction and happy to welcome Ben Williams back to the list of "non-deceased" Past Presidents, and print the recent picture which he sent with his letter.)

ARMANDO OJEDA DIES IN CALIFORNIA

by Peggy Borgolte

Armando Ojeda, one of the leading U. S. specialists in the coinage of Mexico, died in his sleep at his home in Sepulveda, Calif., on Nov. 12. He was 65 years old.

Mr. Ojeda, who won his most recent plaudits from the numismatic world for his chairmanship of the American Numismatic Association convention banquet last August, was extremely active in many regional and local numismatic organizations, in addition to the ANA.

Among those societies which benefited from his membership were the Numismatic Association of Southern California, Organization for International Numismatics, Israel Coin Club of San Fernando, Societa Numismatica de Mexico, Societa Numismatica de Espana and The Azteca Numismatic Society.

A charter member of TANS, Mr. Ojeda served as the society's third president. He was elected an honorary life member of the Los Angeles-based society by unanimous vote of the board of governors in May, 1971, and was installed as president for a second term on Dec. 17, 1972.

Inasmuch as numismatic interest can be inherited, Mr. Ojeda acquired the keen interest which he had in his advocation naturally. He was the great-great grandson of Mariano Ojeda, assayer at the Mexican Mint at Villadolid de Michoacan, whose initials appear on Mexico's most valuable numismatic rarity.

When the coin, an 1813 eight reales, was sold for $15,000 at an auction conducted by Superior Stamp & Coin Co., Inc. of Los Angeles, the distinguished Mexican specialist was present to congratulate the purchaser, Pat L. Pace of Texas.

Mr. Ojeda stressed the fact that he was not attending the auction because of the coin's rarity, "but instead to shake the hand of the winning bidder, the person who will own a small but priceless part of my family's heritage."

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

1976 SLATE

Editor's Note: Due to the press of personal business which will prevent him from being available to serve as NASC President in 1976, Val Mogensen has resigned his position as President-Elect. President Sol Taylor has chosen to leave the position vacant for the short time remaining before the convention and has requested that the Nominating Committee supply candidates for both President (to serve in 1976) and President-Elect (to serve in 1977).

Following is the slate of candidates recommended by the Nominating Committee:

President	Raymond R. Reinoehl
President-Elect	Myron McClaflin
Vice-President	Richard Lebold
Corresponding Secretary	Carol Linn
Recording Secretary	Alvina Fontaine
Treasurer	Walter Snyder
Historian	Leonora Donald

Governors: Nathan Bromberg, Paul Borack, Nona Moore George Price, J. H. McInnis, Jr., Elizabeth Wisslead

Submitted by the Nominating Committee.

CONVENTION SPOTLIGHT — 1976

A committee of approximately twenty members has now been selected to act as the 1976 N.A.S.C. Awards Committee, under the chairmanship of James J. Waldorf. The functions of this committee have long been shrouded in mystery, and we hope you will take a few moments to share with us a brief explanation of our functions and a peek into our past accomplishments.

Again this year, the Numismatic Association of Southern California will present its highest awards at the Installation Banquet. Much publicity and notoriety are given annually to the exhibit awards, and many of us lose sight of the fact that the N.A.S.C.'s most cherished awards are designed to recognize merit throughout the year, rather than an exhibit prepared for the convention. These awards are: (1) The Karl M. Brainard Memorial Literary Awards; (2) The President's Trophy; (3) The Richard P. Goodson Memorial Award; and (4) The Junior Achievement Award.

The Karl M. Brainard Memorial Literary Awards

The Literary Awards are N.A.S.C.'s oldest non-exhibit awards, being given annually since the 1965 Convention. These awards are given to the authors of the three best original articles published in the "N.A.S.C. Quarterly" throughout the year. In 1973, the Literary Awards were renamed "The Karl M. Brainard Memorial Literary Awards" in honor of our Founder and Past President, Karl M. Brainard. The caliber of our past recipients is a tribute to the quality of our quarterly publication:

1965 — First Place, Maurice Jensen; Second Place, Kenneth Young
1966 — First Place, Maurice Jensen; Second Place, George Rony
1967 — (Names of Award Winners not available)
1968 — First Place, Sol Taylor; Second Place, George Rony; Third Place, Peggy E. Borgolte
1969 — First Place, Sol Taylor; Second Place, Xenia Kreizel; Third Place, James L. Betton
1970 — First Place, Thomas W. Becker; Second Place, Maurice M. Gould; Third Place, Ethel Lenhert
1971 — First Place, Leona Kohl; Second Place, Richard J. Trowbridge; Third Place, Sol Taylor
1972 — First Place, James J. Waldorf; Second Place, Sol Taylor; Third Place, Peggy E. Borgolte
1973 — First Place, Earl O'Cathey; Second Place, Richard J. Trowbridge; Third Place, Maurice M. Gould
1974 — First Place, James L. Betton; Second Place, Albert K. Hall; Third Place, Sol Taylor
1975 — First Place, Peggy E. Borgolte; Second Place, Maurice M. Gould; Third Place, Sol Taylor

The President's Trophy

The President's Trophy is awarded annually to the N.A.S.C. member club which has consistently published the outstanding club bulletin during the previous year. With approximately eighty current N.A.S.C. member clubs, most of which issue a monthly bulletin, a selection of the President's Trophy recipient is perhaps the most time consuming task facing the Awards Committee. The award was first given in 1968 to Echo Park Coin Club, and the trophy was conceived and donated by Edwin C. Borgolte and Peggy E. Borgolte. The competition for this award has been increasingly intense since its inception, and this current year is no exception. Past winners are:

1968 — Echo Park Coin Club
1969 — Azteca Numismatic Society
1970 — Los Angeles Coin Club
1971 — West Valley Coin Club
1972 — West Valley Coin Club
1973 — American British Numismatic Society
1974 — Israel Numismatic Society of San Gabriel Valley
1975 — Torrance Coin Club

The Richard P. Goodson Memorial Award

The highest award which the Numismatic Association of Southern California can bestow upon an individual is the Richard P. Goodson Memorial Award, which is given annually to the member or members who have contributed the most in the field of Numismatics through the Numismatic Association of Southern California. The only requirement is that the recipient have been a member in good standing of N.A.S.C. for at least three consecutive years. The occasion of this award has traditionally been the emotional highlight of the annual banquet. The award was first given in honor of N.A.S.C.'s Past President by the Mar Vista Coin Club in 1968, and past winners are:

1968 — Charles M. Johnson
1969 — Abe Kosoff
1970 — Maurice M. Gould
1971 — Peggy E. Borgolte and Karl M. Brainard
1972 — Herbert M. Bergen
1973 — William O. Wisslead
1974 — Murray G. Singer
1975 — Walter T. Snyder

The Junior Achievement Award

The Junior Achievement Award was founded at the 1973 Convention, to be given annually to the outstanding young Numismatist in Southern California. To be eligible, a young Numismatist must be under eighteen years of age at the time of the Convention, and must be either a member in good standing of N.A.S.C. or a member in good standing of an N.A.S.C. member club. Nominations for this award may be made either by N.A.S.C. member clubs or by any individual member of N.A.S.C., and must be made in writing prior to January 1. Our past recipients are:

1973 — Debbie Martin, James Zimmerman, and Kenneth Byrne
1974 — Albert Cole
1975 — Marti Hughes

Conclusion

For those of you interested in the Karl M. Brainard Memorial Literary Awards, the first step is to write an original article for publication in the N.A.S.C. Quarterly, and forward the same to the Editor of the Quarterly.

N.A.S.C. member clubs should also send their club bulletin to the Editor of the Quarterly to ensure that the bulletin will be judged for the President's Trophy, as well as highlights of club meetings being reflected in the Club News. At the present time, these should be forwarded to:

J. H. McInnis, Jr.
P. O. Box 1765
Santa Monica, CA 90406

Nominations for the Richard P. Goodson Memorial Award and the Junior Achievement Award should be mailed to the Awards Chairman not later than December 30, 1975, together with a brief summary of the nominee's credits. His address is:

James J. Waldorf
7060 Hollywood Boulevard
Hollywood, California 90028

We hope by this brief explanation of our awards, what they represent and how they are chosen, our membership will have a better appreciation of our annual awards. We encourage you to participate in the awards function, and to bring deserving recipients to our attention.

THE AWARDS COMMITTEE

Not only knowledgeable in the area of Mexican numismatics and paper money, the late specialist also was well informed in the heraldry of his mother country, having contributed an essay on the allegorical significance of the Mexican coat of arms to the Numismatic Association of Southern California Quarterly, which was reprinted in March, 1972 in Plus Ultra, journal of Mexican numismatics published by TANS.

Mr. Ojeda is survived by his widow, Alicia, who was a constant companion and inspiration to him in his numismatic activities. Also surviving are four sons and a daughter.

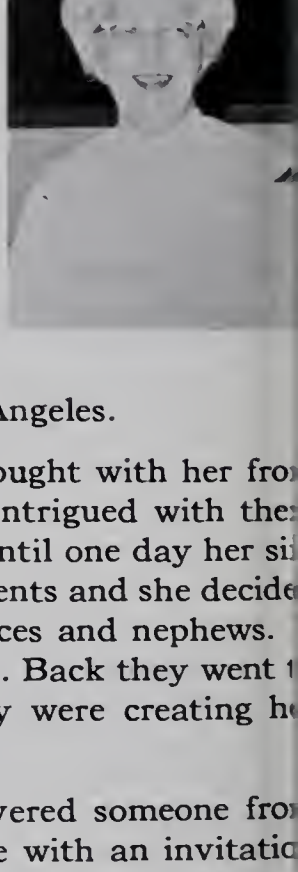
Alvina H. Fontaine, N.A.S.C. Recording Secretary

by Carol A. Linn

Our Recording Secretary, Alvina H. Fontaine, was one of sev children born to Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Hansen, immigrants fro Denmark, who spent her early childhood on a beautiful farm locat on the shores of Lake Marion, Minnesota. The fondest childhood memory Alvina has was when her Grandfather, an expert craftsman, built a 35-foot sailboat and named it in her honor. This created her interest in water and sailing.



After graduation from High School, Alvina attended Business College in Hutchinson, Minnesota. Later, while working at the Home Gas Company, Minneapolis, Minnesota, Alvina vacationed in California with a high school friend. It was after this vacation that she decided to relocate to California. Continuing her education, Alvina attended Southwestern University in Los Angeles.

Included in a little box of trinkets Alvina brought with her fro home were several Indian Head Cents. She was intrigued with the yet never knew just what to do with these cents until one day her si year-old nephew was showing off his collection of cents and she decid to divide her Indian Head Cents between her nieces and nephews. didn't quite even out for Alvina still had three left. Back they went the trinket box but little did Alvina realize they were creating h interest in collecting coins.

Returning from work one day, Alvina discovered someone fro the Downey Numismatists had been by the house with an invitatio to visit the Downey coin club. This was the beginning of Alvina numismatic interest and involvement in the numismatic organization Soon she became active in the Downey Numismatists, serving in man capacities, holding the office as President in 1972-1973 and current still serving on the Board of Directors. She is also a member of ANA NASC, and is the NASC Visual Education Chairwoman. Although h main interest is in coins, she also collects the 99 Company PNC issue Alvina is more interested in the history behind the coins than i owning a large collection.

Her position as Accountant with Custom Built Fence Company Pico Rivera keeps her busy, yet not too busy for involvement wit other hobbies. Among them are Antiques, Oil Paintings, and a speci collection of Bells. She is an avid baseball fan and was very active i bowling and golfing, receiving several trophies for her efforts. Present

Alvina is a member of the Bell Gardens Historical Society, Friends of Bell Gardens Library, and the Women's Committee for the Downey Symphony. Enjoying music, cooking and gardening, Alvina's current project is Tuberous Begonias. Member of the First Congregational Church of Los Angeles, Alvina still finds time to devote to several organizations within the church.

Leisure traveling is included in Alvina's interests, this year she visited the Hawaiian Islands. Her dream is to visit the home of her parents in Denmark.

With her lovely smile and congenial greeting, NASC is very fortunate to have Alvina serving as our Recording Secretary.

THE POET'S CORNER

I'm Not A Poet And I Know It" — But this is my valley - - - - -

"CONEJO"
"CON-A-HO"

So many folks it seems today —
With pretty names just go astray,
You take our valley — just for fun —
It is about the only one — that has a rabbit on the run.
You spell it

C - for come and see it,
O - for ocean quite close to me,
N - for nearly touch the sky,
E - for every beauty flying by,
J - for join our mountain range,
O - for OH! such tranquility God can arrange.

He touched the earth, and left it here,
Among the mountains sweet and clear.
He almost missed and dropped it by
The ocean — not the sky.
But He knows best — He left it here
For those He loves so very dear.
It looks as tho you should pronounce it

CON-E-JO

But that's not so — A little imagination from you,
A little Spanish too — and then —
Please pronounce it

CON-A-HO

And that means rabbit you all know.

SUPPLEMENTAL HISTORY OF N.A.S.C.

by James J. Waldorf

The Numismatic Association of Southern Californai is currentl in its twenty-first year, having been founded in 1955. In 1959, th quarterly publication brought forth its first issue, and from that tim forward, our progress has been fairly well documented (with occasion lapses in reporting). The names and dates of our twenty past Pres dents is also frequently alluded to in this publication and other offici records of N.A.S.C.

In addition, previous attempts have been made to documen aspects of the history of N.A.S.C. in this publication, and we will no duplicate this previously recorded data. Interested readers are referre to articles by Eric Warner, "The Story of N.A.S.C., Chapters I & II, appearing in Vol. 1, Issues 1 & 2, for July and October, 1959; and als "History of Numismatic Association of Southern California," b Wayne Dennis, Editor, appearing in Vol. 7, Issue 4, for the fourt quarter of 1965.

The purpose of this and subsequent articles will be to documen some of the lesser known facts relating to the Association for posterity in the hope that on the occasion of our Silver Anniversary in 1980, a entire issue of this publication will be devoted to a comprehensiv history of N.A.S.C. With that in mind, we will attempt in this firs article to list those persons filling the vital roles of elected officers an governors, excluding the office of President, which has been heretofor listed, and also excluding the subsidiary offices of President-Elect an Vice-President (first and second Vice-President prior to 1962), fo all who progressed directly from the office of Vice-President throug the Presidency.

While this may, perhaps, appear to some as trivial nostalgia, it a vital part of our growth over the first twenty years. In future issue I hope to review the history of many of our committees, convention and other activities and personalities which have contributed so muc to N.A.S.C. over the years.

N. A. S. C. COLLECTOR—DEALER FORUM SPEAKERS (left to right):

Mel Wacks, of A-Mark Corp., discussed marketing methods--How numismatic promotions (both "good" and "bad") are carried out and how the collector and the dealer can and should interact in the market.

Abe Kosoff, one of America's best-known professional numismatists, covered coin auctions--How they are run and the pitfalls that exist for buyer, seller, and auctioneer. Also, how to decide where, when, and by whom the collector should allow his or her coins to be auctioned.

Sally _____, Forum Moderator, who "tied it all together".

Ralph A. "Curly"Mitchell, West Coast Representative of the Franklin Mint, presented the point of view of and about the private mints and their issues--Recommended purchase of such issues for their historical, artistic, topical, religeous, or whatever values, but not for investment.

Dr. Sol Taylor, NASC President, educator, and author, replaced Maurice M. Gould on the program and spoke on "The Investment Aspects Of Collecting"--Condition, scarcity, and desirability are the watchwords. Buy right, understand what you have bought, and sell right--a tall order, of course. Invest in coins that have a "track record" of growth.

BOYD'S BATTERY*

By MAURICE M. GOULD

During the 1940's, there was a great deal of numismatic activity at the weekly coin auctions in Boston. One of the Boston dealers who ran a weekly auction was a very fine fellow but his knowledge of numismatics was limited.

In one of his auctions there appeared a round piece of metal with the words "Boyd's Battery" and the reverse read, "Patented January 17, 1878." This lot was described as a Sutler Civil War item.

One of the most active collectors during this period was John Gilbody, who was well informed in all phases of coin collecting. He and I were both interested in Sutler tokens and checked the item on the bid board and we immediately knew it could not be a Civil War item. On investigation we found that this round piece of metal was put into a belt that was supposed to have curative powers.

John, having a great sense of humor, contrived with me to show a great deal of interest in this item all during the week and both of us placed bids on this piece of metal. By the time Saturday rolled around and auction was due to close, a doz people were interested and biddi energetically on this item, while Jo and I stood in the background grea amused by the excitement and scra ble our bids had created.

Several other similar piec showed up in the next couple of ye and they were all enthusiastica received, though the date on th piece of metal, 1878, was mu later than the Civil War period.

Now, twenty years later, i recent advertisement, I was surpri to see a dealer in another section the country advertise one of th items on the same basis as was d many years ago, "Boyd's Batte

There is a moral to this st Learn all you can about your pa cular field of collecting. There many informative and interest books on numismatics and your rary is an important part of your c lection. It will be a great help to in knowing in which direction are going and to distinguish genuine from the false.

VISUAL EDUCATION LIBRARY

The N.A.S.C. Collection of Visual Education Material may be borrowed by N.A.S.C. affiliated clubs for club programs of individual lectures to groups. The collection consists of a series of 2 x 2 slide sets and accompanying lecture notes which describe each slide. Clubs furnish their own projectors. Some of the new model slide projectors will not accomodate the thicker plastic or glass mounted slides. Projectors which permit each slide to be fed individually by hand are recommended.

Send 50c with your order for slide set when writing. Slides are shipped by INSURED PARCEL POST (insured for $50.00). This is the only cost involved.

When requesting slides, give exact dates of meeting and several alternate choices. The more popular slide sets are frequently scheduled months in advance. The longer the notice given, the greater the opportunity of receiving slides for a specific meeting.
